

American citizens enjoy the world's highest quality of life because our industry has been permitted to "sell" us on a higher living ideal for over two centuries. While well intentioned, I fear congress' attempts to curb solicitation via fax, telemarketing and email is the beginning of the end. Over $450,000,000,000 of last years GDP depended on telemarketers. What cave are you guys living in???